

Alpena Yacht Club

November 2018 Newsletter

November AYC Board Meeting

The Board met on November 13th, the minutes and financial reports were reviewed and approved. The house manager reports there are several rentals for Christmas parties in December. The lights above the dessert bar have been replaced and that corner is well lit again. Gregg Resnick reports that the Ynglings are quiet for the winter and that Pete Wilson thanks the Club for its donation to the Youth Sailing Program. The House Committee met and report that Jan will be staying on as long as she's healthy but the committee will continue to work toward finding a replacement for her. The Board is looking for a slate of nominees for the upcoming Board elections if you are interested please contact a board member. The annual dues announcement to the membership will be mailed out in early December; please remember there will be an increase in dues, $15 single / $30 couple.

The Shipmates held a dinner and meeting November 8th. A slate of officers was voted in: Marcie Sherman is President, Linda Baker is vice-president, Pat Huggler remains secretary and Jan Mansfield remains treasurer. The shipmates had a presentation from Pete Wilson about the Youth Sailing program that was appreciated. The Shipmates December meeting is their Christmas party.

Dates to Remember:

November 25th: 2:00 Decorate for Christmas

Dec 1st: AYC Christmas Party (see Flyer)

December 7th: First Friday

Dec 11th: Board Meeting

Dec 13th: Shipmates Christmas Party

Jan 4th: First Friday

Jan 8th: AYC Annual Meeting/Board Meeting

Leave the Lights on Please!

The entrance lights at the Club have been changed to LED lights and we are asking that during the dark winter months you leave them lit.

